Aastra is the leading manufacturer of business phone systems for the small to medium business market. The analysts MZA recently reported that Aastra was the number one vendor of PBXs across the whole of Europe in the sub 100 extension segment.

What is more, following the acquisitions of the PBX divisions of Ascom, DeTeWe and EADS, Aastra is now the 3rd largest PBX manufacturer across Europe, (as quoted by Frost & Sullivan, Enterprise Telephony Market: Market Share (Europe) 2006).

- The Aastra IntelliGate 2025 received the top award "Best Buy" in the Hybrid PBX category
- The Aastra IntelliGate 150 and the Aastra IntelliGate 2065 shared "Good Value" in the Hybrid PBX category
- The Aastra IntelliGate 300 was awarded "Good Value" in the LAN/VoIP Telephone Systems category

The reports on the Aastra systems concluded:

Aastra IntelliGate 2025 "Impressive."

Aastra IntelliGate 2045 "Very user friendly but versatile"

Aastra IntelliGate 2065 "A flexible system embracing just about every way of working".

Aastra IntelliGate 150 "Aastra ... has extended its range to include small systems which cater for companies with up to 10 users. But it still offers all the features you would enjoy on a corporate system"
